

CURRICULUM VITAE

Hans Rudolf KÜNSCH

Born on October 17, 1951, in Zürich, Switzerland

Education:

Ph.D., ETH Zürich, August 1980 (Advisor: Hans Föllmer)

dipl.math., ETH Zürich, April 1975 (corresponding to a master's degree)

Positions held:

1978 – 1982: Assistant, Mathematics Department, ETH Zürich

1983 – 1989: Assistant Professor of Mathematics, ETH Zürich

1989 – 1992: Associate Professor of Mathematics, ETH Zürich

1992 – 2014: Professor of Mathematics, ETH Zürich

2014 – : Professor emeritus, ETH Zürich

Scholarships:

1976-1977: Research Student at University of Tokyo (granted by Ministry of Education of Japan)

1982-1983: Research Fellow at University of Tokyo (granted by Japan Society for the Promotion of Science)

Honors and awards:

Fellow of IMS (Institute of Mathematical Statistics) 2000

IMS Medallion lecturer, IMS annual meeting, Banff, 2002

Elected member of ISI (International Statistical Institute), 2008

Professional activities:

Associate Editor, Annals of Statistics, 1987 – 1991 and 1995 – 1997

Editor, Annals of Statistics, 1998 – 2000

Council member, Bernoulli Society, 1995 – 1999

Council member, IMS (Institute of Mathematical Statistics), 2003 – 2005

Member of IMS committee to select editors, 2006 – 2009

President-elect/President/Past-President of IMS 2011-2014

Regular reviewer for funding agencies and for various journals in probability, statistics and related fields

Coorganizer and Programme Committee member for various conferences in Europe and North America

Chair, Department of Mathematics, ETH Zurich, March 2007 – December 2009